PARTNERS

PWN Paris has built privileged relationships with major companies and leading professional bodies, of different industries and origins, through corporate partnerships. They support PWN Paris and rely on the network to foster in their organisations, women support programs to promote diversity in the workplace for the benefit of all.

THE NETWORK

PWN Paris is a branch of PWN Global. We are a cross-sectoral networking, advocacy, information and training forum for management-level women with an international outlook. The mission of the association – which is run by a group of dynamic women, all volunteers – is to promote the professional progress of women and give them the tools, networks and skills they need to assume leadership roles.
